CITY ADOPTS BUSINESS LICENSE ORDINANCE

TO OPEN FOR FALL SESSION, 1953, St. Lucy's eight grade and administration building to be built at the juncture of Kennedy Avenue and Winchester Road will look like this when completed. The $195,000 structure, which pastor of St. Lucy's Church, Rev. Denis Kennelly, said would definitely open for the fall term, 1953, is well on its way to becoming a reality with $97,355 in cash and pledges already turned in by Tuesday of this week.

Over 200 workers have been organized to solicit the remainder of the 745 families in the parish.

A kickoff meeting has been scheduled for this

Sunday, December 7 at the Church on Rincon Avenue, at which the Rev. John J. Healy, pastor of St. Christopher's parish in Willow Glen, will be guest speaker. Father Healy will speak on the successful campaign conducted by the Willow Glen parish in its building fund program for its Catholic church

BUSINESS LICENSE TAX BECOMES LAW; OUTSIDE FIRMS OBJECT TO VEHICLE FEE; REVISION, AMENDMENT POSSIBLE

City Council Monday night passed the Business License Tax Ordinance, as drawn, but referred it back to the ordinance committee for possible revision and amendment in light of objections raised by spokesmen from San Jose area distributing firms.

Ordinance requires out of town firms doing business in Campbell to pay the $25 fee as well as a $10 charge for each vehicle. Ordinance becomes effective January 1.

Objections raised by distributors centered on the asserted inequality of payment by firms making only infrequent trips to the city.

Ernest Weller, representing Fruit Bowl Distributing Company said it wasn't fair that trucks which stopped once a week in Campbell should pay the same amount as those which arrived daily.

He suggested a tag system to be carried by vehicles showing type of delivery. Fees for different deliveries should be graded he said.

Alan G. Anderson of the Municipal License Tag Association who said the fee on outside business was too high suggested a straight outside license fee of 15 dollars and the abolition of a vehicle fee.

Other spokesmen who thought the fee for outside firms too high were Robert Story, representing Coca Cola Bottling Company and Frank Pearson for the Northern California District.

$97,355 PLEDGED FOR ST. LUCY'S PAROCHIAL SCHOOL BUILDING HERE

Parishioners of St. Lucy's Catholic Church here had $97,355 in cash and pledges toward their $195,000 parochial grammar school Wednesday, four days prior to the kickoff meeting scheduled for this coming Sunday, the Rev. Denis Kennelly, pastor, announced.

Nearly all of the present total has come from the army of more than 200 workers which has been formed to solicit the remainder of the 745 families in the parish.

Opening meeting ceremonies at the church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock will include a request from the pastor that the head of every family which has not made its pledge remain at home that afternoon to await the call of the fellow parishioner who will ask for his pledge. Pledges may be made over a 20-month period with payments weekly, monthly, quarterly, or semi-annually, to suit the convenience of the donor.

Every member of every family in the parish is invited to the opening meeting ceremonies, Father Kennelly said. The Rev. John J. Healy, pastor of St. Christopher's parish in Willow Glen, San Jose, will be guest speaker for the program. The newly-created Willow Glen parish recently conducted a highly successful building fund program for its Catholic church and school, Father Kennelly said.

Throughout this week indoctrination meetings are being held at which workers are receiving the pledge cards they are to solicit.

General Chairman Paul A. Werthman urged that every member of the campaign working organization, whether vice chairman, team captain or team member, attend at least one of these meetings to pick up his pledge cards before the kickoff meeting.

The eight-grade and administration building will be built at the juncture of Kennedy Avenue and Winchester road with construction beginning in January. It will definitely be open for the fall term, 1953, Father Kennelly said.

Insurance Rates Reduced 19 Pct. In Campbell

Fire Insurance rates on Campbell buildings dropped approximately 19 per cent Tuesday, according to L. W. Harmon, local insurance agent. Rates on extended coverage also took a 20 per cent drop, he said, quoting Pacific Fire Rating Bureau, because insurance premiums have been more than enough to cover losses.

While the overall effect was a substantial reduction in rates, Harmon said, a small increase in insurance rates for contents of buildings on new and renewal policies written effective on or after December 1, will go into effect. Harmon said that while the new rates went into effect Monday, they will not apply to policies already in effect.

According to Harmon, property owners will benefit from the reductions on renewal of present policies.

Lowest rate in the Campbell Area is Campbell zone one, which comprises roughly the old Campbell Fire District.

New zone one rates for dwellings with approved roofs are now 42 1/2 cents for each hundred dollars, a drop of 10 cents from old rate .525. Extended coverage rates for zone one are now .10 cents from old rate 12 1/2 cents a hundred, for three year coverage, making a total of .525 on approved roof dwellings and 60 cents for unapproved roofs for both fire and extended coverage.

Campbell zone two rates are slightly higher, running 70 cents for approved roof dwellings for three years, and 77 1/2 cents for unapproved roof dwellings.

Hamilton - Meridian Area and Woodard Union Ave. rates are the same as Campbell zone one. Rosemary Lane area is now the same as Campbell zone one.

Central Fire District rate is the same as Campbell zone two.

Cambrian Park section has a special rate, dwellings with approved roofs running 60 cents a hundred for three years, and unapproved roof dwellings costing 67 1/2.

Contents of buildings, up slightly from the old rate are now 75 cents for three years on buildings with approved roofs, and 82 1/2 cents for unapproved roofs on buildings in the Cambrian Park Area.

Big Profits

LILLIAN E. ANDREWS

JOE MARSHALL was polishing up his showcase and trying to polish up his mental outlook at the same time.

"You needn't go around spreading gloom, if you are up against it," he admonished himself sternly. "Other folks have their troubles as well as you do. They don't want to listen to your croaking."

But the blues seemed to be something like a bad case of the measles. Once you got them, they had to run their course.

"I've done my best to build up a good business and treat my customers as I'd like to be treated," thought Joe. "And now it seems as if nobody really cares a hoot whether I fail or

"This one is tailor made," boasted Pete. "Just feel of that sleeve. Some cloth, eh? I wouldn't dare tell you what this suit cost. You might think I was extravagant."

Joe laughed with him but underneath his laughter there was a stinging sense of failure. His own old well-worn suit seemed shabbier than ever.

Pete opened his sample case with a flourish. "Got a new line, Joe," he announced, after showing his usual samples. "Take a look!"

Joe gave a start of surprise, as he looked at the brightly-labeled bottles. His face grew grim.

"Trash!" he declared bluntly. "Dangerous trash, too. Too much dope in that stuff. You know it as well as I do."

Pete grinned. "Sure I know it!" he agreed cockily. "But it sells like hot cakes. A lot of folks are going to buy it, anyway. You can make a big profit on it."

"I don't want that kind of profit," retorted Joe. "I'm not much of a preacher but I believe in keeping the Golden Rule. I can't keep it and sell that stuff."

"Pooh!" scoffed Pete. "The Golden Rule is out of date. Haven't you found it out yet?"

Joe shook his head. "I guess I'll keep on being old-fashioned," he answered.

Pete argued and wheedled. The gaily-labeled bottles were certainly attractive. One part of Joe's mind insisted on telling him that Pete was right about the "big profit" to be made from selling the stuff in the bottles. And he needn't keep selling it a great while. It would be just a temporary resort to help him get started. There was fire in his blue eyes. He was mad with himself and mad with Pete. It was so easy to be tempted. Too easy.

"You'd better get out of here, Pete Curry!" he advised. "And quick! I'll sell honest goods or none. I'm not going to be a crook even for a few months. Take that abominable stuff somewhere else."

Pete closed his sample case. "You're an imbecile," he told Joe flatly. "I'm afraid you'll always be one."

Then, to Joe's utter astonishment, Pete began to laugh.

"When is the wedding going to be, Joe?" he asked teasingly.

"What wedding?" stammered Joe, amazed at the sudden change in Pete's expression.

"Why, your wedding, of course!" said Pete. "You and Milly Morris have been engaged for a long time. Anyhow, that's what Milly says."

"Milly?" repeated Joe. "I—I don't understand."

"No, I guess you don't!" interrupted Pete. "Milly has been urging her dad to help you out until you had a little more trade, but Mr. Morris has always been just a little doubtful about you. He decided to give you a try-out. That's where I come in."

Comprehension dawned on Joe. "So Mr. Morris sent you down here to test me! Did Milly know about it?"

Pete chuckled. "She certainly did. She told her dad he could go the limit. She knew you were honest. You're a lucky boob, Joe, to have a girl love and trust you as Milly does."

There was a queer mist before Joe's eyes for a moment. "I'm glad I didn't fail her," he told Pete.

He looked again at his showcase and shelves. There would be no gaudy bottles of trash or treacherous dope displayed or sold in his store.

"Nothing but the best is good enough for Joe Marshall's customers," he thought. "Now or any other time."

"I'm glad I didn't fail her," he told Pete.

not. This corner is a fine place for a drug store but I've got to have more ready cash to keep going until I can work up a larger trade."

Joe thought suddenly of his sweetheart, Milly Morris. He hadn't been quite right when he said "nobody cared a hoot" whether he failed or not, Milly cared. It was over a year since he had asked her to marry him. Milly's father owned two big drug stores, but Joe didn't want to ask him for help.

"If he was anybody but Milly's father, it would be different," reasoned Joe, "but I don't want Mr. Morris to think I'm just using Milly as an excuse to borrow from him. I want to stand on my own feet."

He gave the showcase a last energetic swipe. "Snap out of it," he told himself aloud. "If I fail, it will be an honest failure, anyhow."

A girl came in for some ice cream. She had barely finished it and gone when a small, black-eyed boy came in with a prescription.

"My mother got no money," he explained nervously. "She says she pay you when she get better and get some work."

Joe hesitated. He had filled so many such prescriptions that this one seemed the last straw. Then he saw the child's pallor and the beseeching look in his dark eyes.

"All right, sonny," he said. "I hope your mother gets well enough to go to work pretty soon."

He went to the soda fountain and prepared a milk shake. "Here, get outside of this while I'm filling the prescription," he ordered.

A dapper, young salesman entered, as the boy went out. "Hello, Joel!" he began. "How are you?"

"Same old stick in the mud," returned Joe. "Every time you blow in here, Pete Curry, you have a new suit."

THAT'S ALL BROTHER

THIS WAS IT. Here is the pass interception that squelched Los Gatos High School's final hope of pulling the game out of the fire last Thursday. Buc Guard Ron Eddleman (19) has just picked off Chuck Stewart's pass from the 20 intended for Danny Wilson, who grounded Eddleman on the Campbell four. Gatos was trailing 12-6 at the time. Three plays later came Big Bill Gregg's 97-yard run to settle the issue. Los Gatos Times photo.

CUHS HOOPSTERS MEET WILLOW GLEN IN SEASON OPENER THIS AFTERNOON

With its second SCVAL football championship duly entered into the record as a result of the Thanksgiving Day 18-6 victory over Los Gatos High School, Campbell Union High School girls itself for further athletic laurels by sending the Buc cage squad against Willow Glen Rams in the season opener this afternoon at 3:30 on the Ram Court.

Coach Bert Robinson says he has a "good" squad ready for 52-53 competition; considerably bolstered by the addition of football star Bill Gregg, who put the capper on his grid career with a 97 yard "turkey trot" to pay dirt last Thursday, and by flankman Tony Schraub, who had been highly praised by grid coach Jim Muir in his post game recaps.

Ken Beth, Dennis Kelly, Hal Shumway, Dick Jordan, and Bob Penner, from last year's "30" squad should be ready for varsity competition this year, Robinson said.

Another newcomer, who shows good basketball potential, according to Robinson, is Erik Provita.

In other council action a use permit was granted to E. A. and A. R. Garrison, to erect dwellings on lots one and two of P. G. Keith's Subdivision on the Santa Clara-Los Gatos Road between Hamilton Avenue and Latimer Ave.

Council last week had denied permit on the recommendation of planning consultant Nestor Barrett that intended use was too heavy for the area. On the basis of revised plot and elevation plans, Barrett said the development was satisfactory and in line with the City's Master Zoning plan.

American Business Behind The Scenes

by Reynolds Knight

NEW YORK, Nov. 24—This is the season for economic soothsaying. The eager businessman can hear several quite-different versions of what will confront him in the next six months. Examples:

Dr. Jules Backman, professor of economics at New York University, forecasts a minor decline in 1953, lasting into 1954, but not enough to worry about unduly; Dr. Marcus Nadler, professor of finance at the same university, has predicted high-level business the next six months, with a brief setback thereafter.

Dun & Bradstreet, Inc. went to the businessmen themselves for its preview of 1953. Of 1322 executives interviewed, 780 expect sales increases in January, February and March. Fewer than 450 of them, however, looked for higher net profits after taxes. Manufacturers, on the whole, were more optimistic than wholesalers or retailers.

OUT OF THE RED?—Gossip going around Washington is that President Truman's $85 billion budget for fiscal 1954 was a time bomb especially loaded for Eisenhower; if Stevenson had been elected, the story goes, the budget would have been more reasonable by several billions.

Whatever truth the story contains, there's one Washington agency which apparently hopes to be out of the red for some time to come. That's the General Services Administration, which does the federal government's buying of most supplies. GSA has contracted with W. A. Sheaffer Pen Company for an indefinite quantity of Skrip writing fluid—black, blue, and blue-black—but none of it red!

The ink order will transplant quite a few quarts of Mississippi river water all the way to the bank of the Potomac. The ink uses water from the drinking-water supply of Fort Madison, Iowa, de-ionized and purified. The town is supplied from the river.

THINGS TO COME—Clothing that keeps insects away without effort by its wearer is on the way. The Army has devised an odorless and colorless insect repellent for spraying on cloth during manufacture, and when Army needs are cared for it will be licensed for sale to civilians. A portable home broadcasting set has appeared in the Christmas toy line of a Chicago manufacturer. It will broadcast through any set at a distance of 75 feet or less, and costs only $9.95. Shoe manufacturers, encouraged by the welcome given nylon mesh shoes when they first appeared last spring will be back next year with fabric uppers of gold, red and bright blue. Sprayed-on green tinting to kill windshield glare will baffle helpful filling station attendants. It's put on by pressing a button on its container, but it won't wash or wipe off.

BIG PUSH—The all-out campaign for removal of the brakes of antiquated government regulations that keep the railroads close to starvation in the midst of plenty, is moving along in high speed. Those mechanized Paul Reveres—the Eastern railroads 100,000th and 100,001st freight cars built since World War II—are carrying the railroads' message to the public throughout the Northeastern states. Ceremonies and speechmaking are in full swing all along the routes the cars are following. All lines—however their tracks run—are directed at congressional and administrative action to modify outdated transportation policy early in 1953.

MORE COTTON—The Department of Agriculture has increased its estimate of this year's cotton crop, now being harvested, from 14.4 million bales to 14.9 million bales. The move surprised traders and users of the fiber. The Crop Estimate Board cited the ideal harvesting weather, and said recovery from the severe summer drought has been better than was expected.

While this year's crop will be less than the 16 million bales proposed as a goal at planting time, it will still add a million bales to the nation's cotton carry-over, judging from consumption so far this year.

The Board has been moving with great caution this year after the embarrassing failure of its predictions last year. Then it started out with an estimate of close to 17 million bales in August, and the final ginning was 15.1 million bales.

BITS O' BUSINESS—Flotations of new issue or stock raised annually $3 billion of the $90 billion in capital added by American firms in the last five years, the Department of Commerce reported. Retained earnings provided $38 billion, depreciation allowances $18 billion, borrowings most of the rest.

Steel mills operated in October at 106 per cent of rated capacity, a pace that would turn out 115 million tons of ingots and castings in a year. The first German automobiles in 13 years have reached Canada. They are the famous Volkswagens, the people's car for which the Nazi government collected billions of marks in down payments, then didn't deliver because the war began. A hundred American companies got certificates of necessity from D. P. A. in the week of Nov. 5 for building plants—$105 million worth of them, all told. Unemployment declined to a new low in October, the Census Bureau reported. . . .

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, at the office of the County Clerk and ex-officio clerk of said Board of Supervisors in the Court House, City of San Jose in said County, California, on Monday the 22nd day of December, 1952, at the hour of 11 o'clock A. M. for the purchase of bonds of Campbell Union School District of Santa Clara County, State of California, more particularly described below:

ISSUE: $415,000.00, 1952 School Bonds, Series A, consisting of 415 bonds of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, numbered A-1 to A-415 inclusive, all dated February 1, 1953. Said bonds are part of an authorized issue in the aggregate principal amount of $600,000.00. The remaining $185,000.00 principal amount of said authorized issue may be sold when and as determined by said Board of Supervisors, but it is anticipated will not be offered for sale prior to June 1, 1953.

INTEREST RATE: Maximum five (5) per cent per annum, payable annually for the first year on February 1, 1954 and semi annually thereafter on August 1 and February 1 in each year. Bidders must specify the rate of interest which the bonds hereby offered for sale shall bear. Bidders will be permitted to bid different rates of interest and to split rates irrespective of the maturities of said bonds. The interest rate stated in the bid must be in a multiple of one-quarter of one per cent per annum, payable as aforesaid.

MATURITIES: Said bonds mature serially in consecutive numerical order from lower to higher (without option of prior redemption) as follows:
Principal Amount $20,000.00 maturing in each of the years 1954 to 1958, inclusive.
Principal Amount: $21,000.00 maturing in each of the years 1959 to 1973, inclusive.

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States at the office of the County Treasurer of said County.

REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by said Board of Supervisors on behalf of said School District. Such bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds were authorized by more than two-thirds of the voters voting at an election held in said District on June 10, 1952 and will be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for authorized school purposes.

SECURITY: The bonds are general obligations of said School District, and said Board of Supervisors has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said School District, subject to taxation by said School District (except certain intangible personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Bureau of Internal Revenue or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may at his option prior to the tender of said bonds by the Board of Supervisors, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and in such case the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of the following firm, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge: Orrick, Dahlquist, Neff & Herrington, Attorneys at Law, 405 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, California.

TERMS OF SALE

HIGHEST BIDDER: The bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the District would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for receipt of proposals; provided that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given the Board of Supervisors notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of said County as soon as the bonds can be prepared which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the day of sale.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of said County, and endorsed "Proposal for School Bonds of Campbell Union School District, of Santa Clara County."

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $2500.00, drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the County Treasurer, to secure said School District from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the District on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the District. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County Clerk by mail, upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said District, or the title of the officers to their respective offices and the Board of Supervisors will deliver to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.
